

FRIENDS OF SCANDINAVIA HISTORY    MARCH 9, 2020

Following the pledge of allegiance, the meeting was called to order by President, Doug Watson.

The secretary's report from January was read. Carl Evenson made a motion that the minutes be accepted as read. Bill Peterson seconded the motion. Motion Carried.

The treasurer's report was given, and as of this date, we have $12,913.13 in our checking account. Harry Zawacki made a motion the report stand as read. Carl Lantz seconded the motion. Motion Carried.

Doug Watson, Mary Peterson, and Harry Zawacki are up for election. Carl Lantz made a motion that all three continue for another term of office. Doug Watson seconded the motion. Motion Carried. Doug will remain as president, Mary as secretary-treasurer, and Harry will have another three year term on the board.

The chili luncheon was a huge success. We will need to think how we can improve the event for another year.

The motion lights, out at the historic village have not been installed as of this date.

We discussed possible ideas for future programs at our meetings. John Bobbe, Nancy Helbach, and Kay Durrant were a few possibilities.

It was decided to have "Show and Tell" at our next meeting where members would bring family artifacts with a little history on each.

Doug introduced out guests at the meeting .. Tom Olson, John Hoftiezer, Steve Smith, and Terry Gerlach.

A suggestion was made to repaint the sign on the old hardware store in Scandinavia. Doug will speak to Lisa to see if she would give permission to do it.

A motion was made by Carl Evenson to adjourn the meeting. Motion seconded and carried.

After a snack, Terry Gerlach, a retired U.S. Geological Survey geologist, presented a very interesting program about the glacial geology of the Scandinavia area. His program provided a background on the history of the last glacier in Wisconsin, with an emphasis on the geological features of Jorgens Park.
